Bolt Burdon Claims Ranked Among Best Solicitors in London

Islington-based solicitors Bolt Burdon Claims have received high praise and recognition in Chambers 2004, the independent legal guide.

The firm, which specialises in personal injury, clinical and professional negligence litigation was ranked 4th in the London league table of personal injury lawyers and has now become recognised as one of the leaders in this field.

The company received further accolades. Founding partner Roger Bolt, who heads up the personal injury team was ranked 3rd in the individual solicitors' league table and his experience was cited as being key to the firm's success. Among his many positions Roger is Treasurer of the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers and a Fellow of the College of Personal Injury Lawyers, Chambers described him as a man who "clearly knows his stuff."

Roger Bolt said, "I am very pleased that our firm has received these flattering tributes. In the light of recent concerns about some ambulance chasing claims managers, we feel it is vital that a clear distinction is made between the opportunists that Lord Falconer's report criticises and legal practices such as ours, whose desire is to help those who have had their lives significantly damaged by something that wasn't their fault"

Another of Bolt Burdon Claims' partners Rosamund Rhodes-Kemp was also given special mention in this year's edition of Chambers. Rosamund, a former nurse, whose specialist areas include children's claims, neurological problems and claims involving the treatment of elderly patients, received special praise for her work in clinical negligence.

"This is welcome recognition for the hard work that everyone at the firm has put in over the last year and I look forward to the firm being ranked even higher next year," concluded Roger Bolt.
